Meet Your Judges

REBECCA HORVEY

Rebecca grew up in Winnipeg, Manitoba where she began dancing at a young age. What started as an attempt to keep warm in the winter, quickly grew into a lifetime love of movement and the stage. Starting in Tap and Jazz, she quickly rose to the top of the class and won 1st prize for her tap solo at the age of 9. Opening herself up to more styles and teachers, she did most of her training at KickIt Dance Studio where she danced competitively in Jazz, Tap, Hip-Hop, Contemporary, Ballet, and Musical Theatre. It was there that Rebecca first started teaching and assisting dance classes for all ages and levels.

She attended three world dance competitions (Hip Hop/2007/Germany, Tap/2008/Germany, Hip Hop/2009/Poland), traveled to LA each summer to train at The Edge and Millennium, and won the first place scholarship in the senior division at Triple Threat Dance Convention. Rebecca also had the privilege of working at Rainbow Stage in their professional production of 'Beauty and the Beast' where she was one of the youngest ensemble dancers.

After high school, Rebecca attended the Canadian College of Arts in Victoria BC where she competed the three year 'Company C' program. Rebecca was one of the top dancers in the college and a quick study when it came to voice and acting. She was dance captain for nearly every performance opportunity and did a choreography mentorship as well.

Rebecca relocated to Toronto after college where she continued to train and teach. She had the amazing opportunity to work for Koba Entertainment on three cross Canada tours (Bubble Guppies, The Great Big Show, Bubble Guppies) and one US national tour (Shopkins Live). Another highlight was working at the Capitol Theatre in Port Hope where she played Shprintze in 'Fiddler on the Roof'.

Always ready to hit the studio with some good music and a cup of coffee, Rebeccas passion for dance and teaching continues to grow.

MATTHEW MONTGOMERY

Matthew Montgomery is a professional choreographer and instructor who has been training in all areas of dance for over 20 years. He graduated Ryerson University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, majoring in Dance Performance. Matthew has had the privilege of working with admired choreographers such as D.A. Hoskins, Viki St. Denys, Kenny Pearl, Niki Wozniak, Julia Aplin, David Earle of DanceTheatre David Earle, Hari Krishnan of INdance, and Nick Tull. He has been fortunate enough to have toured throughout Canada and the United States with Being Human Dance, INdance, and Dancetheatre David Earle. Matthew has been teaching for over a decade, with students moving on to professional careers in dance and training programs throughout Canada, the United States, and Europe. He has been the head of the Contemporary department at Studio P.A.V.A.S. for over twelve years now. One of his former students, who he had privately mentored, was cast in a leading role in the Mirvish production of 'Matilda'. Wesleyan University in Connecticut, USA invited Matthew to be an annual guest mentor with their dance majors, helping their artists develop new techniques and expanding their knowledge of movement.

Matthew was proud to be part of Canadian Opera Company's, Dora Award winning opera 'Iphigenie En Tauride'. Matthew has been proud to work with multiple recording artists including Nick Jonas, Jason Derulo, and Johnny Orlando. He was also a featured soloist in Deleriums 'Days Turn Into Nights' music video, as well as Serena Ryders 'Slow' music video. To this day, he continues to advance his training and techniques in Toronto, New York, and other cities around the world. Matthew is a proud choreographer and mentor for multiple dance studios not only coast to coast in Canada, but with dancers throughout the United States. His choreography has won a number of 'Choreography' awards with multiple overall placings. Thank you for having him here this weekend. He is thrilled to be part of the growth and development of these young artists and to continue advocating for the importance of our dance studios .
